MEMBER
 NATIONAL NEGRO PRESS ASSOCIATION.

Why not have a playground supervisor for the parade? Such an official serving during the afternoon and evening would be able to prevent a great deal of the lax conduct practiced by young people both white and colored.

The officials of Allen Chapel met this week and solemnly agreed to adopt a modern financial system to take the place of the antiquated plan in vogue since the Emancipation. Now, let us see how well they live up to the solemn agreement.

Negro soldiers at Camp Funston have been officially advised not to do anything that tends to stir up race feeling upon part of the white soldiers. This means, of course, that the Negro soldiers must not let the white soldiers see them holding up their heads and acting like more human beings.

In this critical period of "world democracy" it would be a good time to advise poor white people, soldiers and civilians, that they should show a decent amount of respect for the black soldiers in uniform, the best American fighters, the men who will deal the final blow to kaiserism and preserve the dignity of the American flag.

THE REDEMPTION.

The rendition of the Redemption by the combined choruses of Western University and Allen Chapel was beyond the most sanguine expectation of the vast audience that came to hear these wonderful voices. This musicale had been postponed from Good Friday on account of the lack of car service to Friday April 12, which was much more favorable to the occasion. Prof. Robert G. Jackson deserves much credit for presenting to the public this high class affair.

Quoting from the old song, "With Fightings Without and Fears Within," The Saturday News struggles up to the sixth year of its existence with this day's issue. In doing so it cannot restrain the observation that the publication of a Negro paper is not strewn with roses. The editor of such a publication is a sort of handy-andy for the entire race and must possess, aside from the patience of Job the fasting proclivities of Dr. Tanner in order to record his existence.

Everybody uses the Negro newspaper with the assumption that it does not cost anything to run it; that the editor eats what old papers that are left and his exchanges living like a Billy goat does off the labels from tomato cans.

Yet it is pleasant to know that you have in some measure been useful to your people even though such usefulness is the most expensive avocation in which a Negro may engage.—Phil Brown in Hopkinsville (Ky.) News.

My commission expires Apr. 10, 1918.

AN APPEAL TO THE TWELVE MILLION NEGROES OF THE UNITED STATES.

Our nation is engaged in a war for its very existence. To win this war we must save food, grow great crops of foodstuffs and substitute other foods for those most easily shipped to our associates in this war and our own soldiers in France, thousands of whom are men of your own race. The Food Administration realizes that the Negro people of this nation can be of the utmost help in food conservation and food production. Every Negro man, woman and child can render a definite service by responding to the appeal and instructions of the Food Administration and its representatives. The Negroes have shown themselves loyal and responsive in every national crisis. Their greatest opportunity of the present day, to exercise this loyalty, is to help save and grow food. I am confident that they will respond to the suggestions of the Food Administration and thus prove again their patriotism for the winning of this war.

(Signed) Herbert Hoover.

THEY SAY

—That the rattling of skeletons in anyone's closet is not a pleasant sound.

—That there are a couple of divorce cases coming up shortly that are going to be hotter than dog days in August. So they say.

—That the Negro who doesn't get the Sun in his home in this city is either unable to read or he does not keep up with the times.

—That it looks like a small size female army to go out on the hillside and watch the Cullud women charging down on greens.

—That the business firm that is too trifling and onery to sweep their sidewalks ought to be arrested every morning. Amen.

—That every Negro in the city should feel proud of the splendid record made by our people in the Third Liberty Bond campaign except those Negroes who are able to subscribe and refuse to do so.

—That if the Colored people succeed in securing the bath house located on the Paseo, every Negro south of Twelfth street will be compelled to bathe twice a day. Glory, Glory, Hallelujah! Let's have it quick!

—That when a certain Negro who had been run over by an automobile and received a broken arm and leg as well as a number of other contusions was advised to go to a hospital instead of being taken home, asked the attending physician "which one has the prettiest nurses?" Game dude, wasn't he?
